- Drink bottle

Learn to play basketball

Aussie Hoops

5 to 10 years: Thursday afternoons

Would you like to offer your children an introduction to the game of basketball without full-scale competition? Our fun-filled program, an initiative of Basketball Australia, is designed to teach children and their parents the skills, teamwork and etiquette of this fantastic and increasingly popular game.

With supportive and enthusiastic coaches, this program offers your kids a chance to 'get off on the right foot' whilst having fun and is a great introduction to shaping their future lifestyle choices.

Aussie Hoops is also offered as an Access for All Abilities program for children with a disability. The program introduces participants to a number of important coordination skills, motor skills and social skills and all sessions are conducted by a qualified instructor.

Includes coaching, participation certificate and Aussie Hoops pack, which consists of:

- Backpack
- Basketball
- T-Shirt
- Drink bottle

Biddy Ball

5 to 9 years: Friday afternoons

Biddy Ball introduces children to an actual game of basketball. This exciting program is designed to follow on from the popular Aussie Hoops program, although children who have not been part of any structured learning program are also welcome.

Experienced coaches educate players on the rules throughout the game as well as reinforcing teamwork and skills.

Includes uniform hire, coaching and participation medal.
